--Of Local Interest--

The regular meeting of the Loyal Legion Sunday afternoon at 2.30.

The Ladies of the W. C. T. U. will give an ice cream social Friday night. Admission, 15 cents.

There will be no services at Presbyterian church Sunday morning, Rev. Mr. Chumbley being called to Danville to assist in installing the new minister at Presbyterian church in that city.

Rev. Mr. Ellis, of Louisville, has been called to preach at the Baptist church and will preach his first sermon about the first of June. The engagement is for only three months, and it satisfactory to pastor and congregation. He will accept the pastorate permanently.

Since opening Athletic Park, some splendid base ball has been played with teams from neighboring towns. The Lancaster boys are up to snuff, and when you hear the familiar and melodious voice of Brice Bruce announcing, "We's gwine ter play 'em!" go out and you will see a good game.

The Rev. Mr. McCorkle of Nicholasville, who delivered the sermon to graduating class Sunday evening, also preached at the Presbyterian church Sunday morning, his sermon being one of the best ever delivered in this city. Our people were delighted with his discourses, and trust he will honor our town with another visit.

"Uncle Ben" is All Right.
Danville Advocate:—Mr. Ben Robinson, one of Garrard's oldest and most prominent citizens, was in the city yesterday and today, the guest of his daughter, Mrs. Will Baughman, on East Main street. "Uncle" Ben is still Marksbury's leader in politics despite his advanced age, and is a past master of the art of electioneering.

Undertaker's Parlor.
Mr. J. A. Beazley has fitted up a beautiful undertakers' establishment, in the Stormes block, just above the Presbyterian church, where he is ready and prepared to give the best services in his line. Being an expert in embalming, he makes this a special feature of the business. A handsome line of caskets, burial robes, etc., constantly in stock, and all orders will be attended to promptly and in the best manner.

Fish Club Notice.
The City Council having signified their willingness to grant a 20-year fishing privilege in the water works lake, a meeting is hereby called of all those interested to be held in the Council Chamber Friday night, the 20th, at 7 o'clock to perfect an organization to be known as the "Lake Placid Fishing Club," membership limited only to persons living in Lancaster. Don't forget the time, Friday night the 20th, and be there at 7 o'clock.

Lincoln's Time.
Danville Advocate:—Chairman Jas. H. Holdam, of the Lincoln county Democratic Committee, R. S. Nichols, of Boyle, Wm. Montgomery, of Casey, and Wm. Gooch, of Garrard, met at the court house in Danville this afternoon, and after listening to arguments were unable to agree whether it was Lincoln or Boyle county's time to furnish the Senatorial candidate in this District, and by special agreement of the candidates Mr. A. D. Leavell, of Garrard, was called into conference, and it was then decided that it was Lincoln's time—the vote standing three to two.

Noble Work.
The City Council has given charge of the little park to the W. C. T. U., and the latter have made a most beautiful spot thereof. A number of flower beds have been made, the benches painted, the grass cut and the place presents a most inviting appearance. The ladies request The Record to say they did this for the benefit of the public, especially the young men, and extend a most cordial invitation to the boys to make the Park their lounging place during the hot weather. A water faucet will be placed where the grass and flowers can be watered, a hand will visit the Park daily and remove the cart loads of old paper swept on the Square from the stores, and everything done to make the spot inviting and delightful. Those who love progress and a clean town are very grateful to the W. C. T. U., which organization has done the only work in this direction.

Streets to be Sprinkled.
J. A. Beazley, manager of the water works, took a paper to the business men last week, and nearly all readily agreed to contribute toward defraying the expense of sprinkling the streets this summer. Enough signers were secured, and the work will begin in a day or so. It will be done with the hose, and in addition to the Public Square, water will be thrown twice a day in front of any property where the owner will pay a reasonable fee therefor. This is a great blessing to the town, as more damage has been done by dust than from any other source. The Record cannot refrain from chuckling a bit as it sees the numerous benefits of the water works being put into practice. Just think of a merchant having the dust kept off his stock for only seven dollars a year!

Many Lancaster friends extend deep sympathy to Maj. Curtis F. Burnam, of Richmond, on the death of his beloved wife, who passed to her reward last week.

The young gentlemen composing the "E. S. C." will give a picnic and hay ride at the river Friday evening. Only club members will be present and a delightful time is anticipated.

A dog, supposed to have been mad, attacked T. J. Hatcher a few mornings since, causing much alarm. The dog was killed and Dr. Acton dressed the wound the dog made on Mr. H's hand. No signs of further trouble have appeared.

The Record has been highly complimented on its success and progress in printing a colored ad in last issue. This required much work, and calculations, but we are prepared to do anything in the printing line, no matter how complicated.

Changes on "Kay See."
On July 1, Mr. W. H. Anderson, present Train Master at Paris, will become General Superintendent of the K. C. Division of the L. & N. railroad, and the offices will be removed to Paris. Mr. Louis H. Hild will be Superintendent of Terminals at Cincinnati, and Mr. Brent Arnold will become Third Vice President of the road. It has not been decided who will succeed Mr. Anderson as Train Master at Paris.—Cynthiana Democrat.

Mr. Anderson, the new Superintendent, is one of the most popular men on the division, as well as one of the best officials. He is a progressive man, and we look for many changes and improvements.

Hon. George Gilbert Here.
Congressman G. G. Gilbert, of Shelbyville, was in town a few days since, and made The Record office a most pleasant call. Mr. Gilbert has made a splendid record in Congress, and no one ever took more pains in looking after the wants of his constituents than he has. All letters were answered promptly, and any business, no matter how trivial, was always looked after promptly. Mr. Gilbert stands upon his record, and will make several speeches in the counties of the district. He has many warm friends in Garrard.

Kennedy-Stagner.
On Thursday, the 12 inst., at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe H. Kennedy, of Richmond, their daughter, Miss Annie Laurie, was united in marriage to Mr. B. M. Stagner, of Danicannon, a prosperous and worthy young farmer. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Hugh McLellan, was beautiful and impressive. The attendants were Miss Katherine M. Arnold, of Hyattsville, and Frank Kennedy, brother of the bride. The gracious manner and natural attractiveness of the young bride make her a general favorite.

One of best-written newspaper articles we have read is printed in the Tampa, Fla., Times, from the pen of Mr. E. L. Pearce, a son of Dr. E. H. Pearce, pastor of the local Methodist church. It deals with local matters there, but is so well-worded as to be enjoyable to those unacquainted with the situation. Newspaper men, especially editors of country papers are compelled to read many articles written by people who have had an opportunity to learn and know "what's what," but not one in ten is in presentable shape, in fact what newspaper men call "decent copy" is rare indeed. Every town is chock full of men who know how to run a newspaper, and who comment on the get up of their local paper, but not one in fifty could write a little two line personal. Such an article as that written by young Mr. Pearce is the exception and not the rule in matter contributed to newspapers.

Teachers Selected.
The Board of Trustees of the Graded School, at a meeting held Monday re-elected Prof. Mannix as principal, Miss Peyton, assistant principal, Misses Oakley, Smith, Anderson, Washburn and Henderson, teachers in the primary and high school. Mrs. Burnside was re-elected teacher of music. Miss Peyton, having accepted a position elsewhere, declined to accept. The board will probably select a young man for assistant to fill the vacancy. The school has splendid trustees, and the tax payers can rest assured that what they do is for the best. They look closely into every detail of the work, visit the school and hear both sides to all questions, and if there is any dissatisfaction with their work, we have failed to hear of it. The school has made wonderful progress during the present term, the discipline being better than ever before. The fact that there have been no dissensions is proof conclusive that the present principal and teachers are the right people in the right place, and it was wise to keep them there. The trustees give much of their time to the school's welfare, and the people certainly should appreciate their work. A synopsis of the year's work will be given in a future issue of The Record.

Strayed or Stolen.

J. M. LOGAN.

Capt. Boston Dillion Dead.

After a protracted illness, Captain Boston Dillion died at his residence in this city, about noon Sunday. Capt. Dillion was born in Madison county, eighty seven years ago, and resided there until breaking out of the civil war, when he entered the Union army, serving in Wolford's cavalry with gallantry and distinction. At close of the war he came to Garrard and resided here the remainder of his life. He was twice married, his second wife being a Miss Wortham, sister of Mr. Joe Wortham and Mrs. Geo. Wright, of this city, and Sim Wortham, of Stanford. Only three children survive him, Capt. W. R. Dillion, of Livingston, Mr. Ansil Dillion, of Crab Orchard, and Mrs. Wm. Jones, of Colorado. Capt. Dillion was a member of the Baptist church, and in the prime of life was a leader in the republican party of Garrard. He was elected jailer for four years. He was a man of high integrity and honor, and as brave as a lion. He was warm-hearted and always ready to do his part toward bettering the community. Funeral services were conducted at the residence by Elder F. M. Tindler, the remains being taken to Crab Orchard for interment. To his widow and children the community extend deep sympathy.

Fortunate Conductor.

Capt. Phil Price, who runs the K. C. day trains, is back on his run, after a lay off to attend to some important business. It is good news to Captain Price's many friends to know that he has recently met with good fortune. A relative in California, died last month, leaving him a large fortune. Having valuable patents on a flying machine he has been working on for some years, he will now push his invention to a successful end, and soon become one of the richest men in America. Only a few of his most intimate friends were "next to" his secret, as his plans were kept carefully guarded.

Is this your copy of The Record?

Personal Mention.

Mr. Ike Dunn and wife, of Bryantsville, were visitors here Tuesday.
Roy Beazley, of Stanford, has been visiting his brother, J. A. Beazley.
Mr. William Burton, who has been quite sick, is reported very much better.
Mrs. R. L. Jennings, of Paint Lick, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Thompson.
Mr. John Marrs, of Richmond, has been the guest of his sister, Mrs. R. H. Tomlinson.
Misses Rella and Allie Arnold have returned from a brief visit to relatives in Nicholasville.
Joe Burnside has returned from the Spencerian Business College, Louisville, for a short vacation.
Mrs. Georgia Lusk and Miss Bettie Miller are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Miller, of Knoxville, Tenn.
Mr. William Lackey, wife and little son, John, of McCreary, visited Judge R. A. Burnside and family Sunday.
Drs. J. M. Acton, J. B. Kinnaid and H. C. Herring attended the State Medical Society meeting in Lexington this week. They report a most successful meeting, and a delightful visit.
The handsome invitations to commencement exercises of Hamilton College, Lexington, contain in list of graduates the name of Miss Theo. Lillard Hemphill, of this city. Miss Hemphill has received highest marks in her studies and received much praise from her teachers. She has many admirers in Lancaster who are delighted with her success.

Lancaster, Ky., May 20, 1904.

It will soon be so warm that Mr. Bryan will be unable to cut ice.

The flag is at the Panama canal, but it will require a mighty strong constitution to follow it over the whole route from water to water.

Kansas is going to have another enormous crop and is worried for want of men to harvest it. The sufferings of that state are something terrible to contemplate.

Mr. Carnie has given away $100,000,000 and still has $200,000,000 in his jeans. If he doesn't hurry he will surely die rich and that will make him feel ashamed.

One Russian general reports a "glorious, but glorious battle." He recognized the necessity of a change from the monotonous "I regret to report," etc., and thought it best to jolly the czar a little bit.

The Russian campaign of "luring" the Japs goes steadily on. And the Japs seem to so thoroughly enjoy being lured that they follow the Russians wherever the latter can be found. These Russians are great on strategy.

The African Methodist Conference, in session at Chicago, denounced and placed a ban on theatres, dancing, card playing and "can-rushing." Nothing was said against crap shooting, carrying a razor and chicken stealing, those being Rastus' rights which must not be disputed or interfered with.

Though there are wars and rumors of wars, the old world is not looking backward. In fact, in the matter of international conflict, it is really on the mend. The history of international arbitration shows that by decades, from 1840 to 1900, there were, respectively, 6, 15, 23, 26, 45 and 62 cases. In the last three years there have been 63 cases. Maybe all that's needed to end wars altogether is time, but it will take a lot of it at the pace we are going.

Temperance is usually thought of in the sense of applying to the use of intoxicating beverages, but it should not be forgotten that there is such a thing as temperance in all things, to recall the words of the profound biblical character, Paul. It is rare, indeed, that a metropolitan paper goes to press without some tragic story of bloodshed due to the giving way to passion and temper. Murders and murderous assaults are daily committed rashly when second thought would have advised no violence; slanderous reports wrecking precious reputations and spilling promising futures are spread by too ready tongues, or the giving way to mean, contemptible tempers. Don't go to the extreme in anything. "Be temperate in all things."

STONE.

Young squirrels are ripe.

C M Moberley sold a cow and calf to Moses Dorton, for $35.00.

F N Folger shipped via Kentucky river, on steamer Falls City to Louisville, 79 hogs, at $4.65 per hundred.

W M Moberley, who has been confined to his room six weeks on account of rheumatism was able to visit his father one day last week.

Baby Mamie Low, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm Moberley, died on the 9th inst., of pneumonia. Interment in Lancaster Cemetery, Tuesday.

Mrs. A F Moberley, two children, of Coffeyville, Kansas, and her father, Wm Amon, of Stanford, visited C M Moberley and F N Folger, last week.

P A Gilliam, of Lexington, will return to his charge at Scotts Fork 1st Saturday and Sunday in June. All good people, and bad ones too invited.

F N Folger has a peach tree with well developed plums, 40 to 50 in number, growing on it. If there should be a doubting Thomas, after reading this item, you are cordially invited to come and see. No joke about it, it is true.

Uncle George Sewell has charge of the ferry at Sugar Creek landing, you don't have to wait to find him, he is at his post all the time; a veteran ferryman, kind and gentlemanly to every body. No cleverer man than he.

The Kentucky river is lined with fishermen on both sides all the way from Dan to Bersheba. Regret to say most of the fishing is being done on the Holy Day. Many good ones have been taken, newlights, bass, grayling, brim, cat, &c.

Lee Austin and Miss Dillie Humphrey, both of Garrard, were married by the Rev G W Thompson, on the 11th inst. The romance was short, but the novelty of the ceremony rather the place where the ceremony was said, is beyond compare. They drove alone to the parson's residence, he was toiling in the field; they went to where he was, Mr. A., in a few words told his business, the parson said it was necessary to have a witness, and looked round about. In a field near by he called a neighbor, Mr. Ephraim Anderson, who went and heard the glad words, "I pronounce you man and wife." After congratulations, the couple went away seemingly happy. Mr. A. is a young man of business ability, the young lady a beauty, and of course, to Lee, worth her weight in gold. Our best wishes attend them through life's uneven way.

Sick headache results from a disordered stomach and is quickly cured by Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. For sale by Frisbie's Drug Store.

From the Chapin, S C News. Early in the spring my wife and I were taken with diarrhoea and so severe were the pains that we called a physician who prescribed for us, but his medicines failed to give any relief. A friend who had a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy on hand gave each of us a dose and we at once felt the effects. I procured a bottle and before using the entire contents we were entirely cured. It is a wonderful remedy and should be found in every household. H C Bailey, Editor. This remedy is for sale by Frisbie's Drug Store.

Some men can give a dozen excuses for doing wrong and overlook the one reason for doing right.

It is easy to gain a reputation for acuteness by always leaning at another's stories.

Good Spirits

Good spirits don't all come from Kentucky. Their main source is the liver and all the fine spirits ever made in the Blue Grass State could not remedy a bad liver or the hundred and one ill effects it produces. You can't have good spirits and a bad liver at the same time. Your liver must be in fine condition if you would feel buoyant, happy and hopeful, bright of eye, light of step, vigorous and successful in your pursuits. You can put your liver in fine condition by using Green's August Flower—the greatest of all medicines for the liver and stomach and a certain cure for dyspepsia or indigestion. It has been a favorite household remedy for over thirty-five years. August Flower will make your liver healthy and active and thus insure you a liberal supply of "good spirits." Trial size 25c; regular bottles, 75c. At all drug lists.

There is nothing so tiresome as the man with a grievance.

Made Young Again.

"One of Dr. King's New Life Pills each night for two weeks has put me in my 'teens' again," writes D H Turner, of Dempseytown, Pa. They're the best in the world for Liver, Stomach and Bowels. Purely vegetable. Never gripe. Only 25c at McRoberts' Drug Store.

Mt Vernon Signal:— Mr John W Miller was out from Lancaster this week... Mr and Mrs Wm Ferrill, of Garrard county, are in this locality visiting friends and relatives... D C Pullins transferred two hives of bees for J S Reppert, killed a rattlesnake and found a bee tree while he was at Brush Creek last week.

Middlesboro Record:— Miss Marguerite Walker will return to her home at Paint Lick, Monday morning, after a visit of several weeks with Mrs J V Arnold at the Bellevue... James B Rucker stopped over here Tuesday evening to attend the leap year ball. He was on his way to Stonega from a visit to his parents at Paint Lick.

The Record office had a most pleasant call from Maj. E W Lillard, of Danville. He was here looking after his interests as a candidate for democratic nomination for State Senator. Maj. Lillard was engaged in the drug business in Lancaster for many years, his stock being burned in the old town hall fire. He then moved to Danville where he has been very successful in business. "Leaf" is a clever gentleman, and has some warm friends in Lancaster.

NO PRETTIER SCENERY

Or Better Fishing Streams in America Than are Our Kentucky and Dix Rivers.

A representative of the Harrodsburg Herald, in giving a write up visit to a camping party, shows in the following extracts how the Kentucky and Dix rivers are being ruined as fishing streams. The laws against destruction of fish are totally ignored, and if any one has ever heard of an effort being made to prosecute violators, that fact has been kept a profound secret. The Herald says:

The scenery in the immediate vicinity of High Bridge is well known to travelers and is ranked in grandeur with that of the Hudson and is brought into favorable comparison by tourists with the mountains of Italy, and yet but few admirers of nature's handiwork have ever viewed the gorgeous scenes afforded by a trip up Dix river, a stream insignificant as compared to the "Old Kaintuck," and yet when she blooms out in her May attire Miss Dix is as charming to critical eyes as the old spister "Kaintuck." * * * We failed in passing Bowman Terhune and Shelt Ransdel, who failing to entice the finches to take their minnows, had easily succeeded in exchanging a few pieces of silver for a dozen fine new lights, which had wandered into one of the many winged nets which are abundant in Dix river as plentifully as torpedoes in the channel at Port Arthur.

* * * On the surface of the water through which the beautiful lone glided as gracefully as a swan, (though tugging the Tad Pole with its weary human freight,) signs of a dynamite engagement which had but recently occurred with the finches appeared. Dead fish, victims of explosions, were floating about, suggesting that the fish had recently passed by the Legislature had been wantonly violated, and reminding us that the officials whose duty it is to appoint wardens had neglected it. The constant use of dynamite and nets is a flagrant violation of law and plays sad havoc with fish in these waters, and no attempt has yet been made to ferret out and punish the offenders who revel in their deeds of carnage and capture, not for sport, but "revenue only." Were it not for these ruthless piscatorial marauders, the Kentucky and Dix rivers would soon be teeming with game fish, and would furnish sport for anglers equal to any streams of the North or West.

* * * We noted a grand harvest in store for mountain lo-men, for the Kentucky was almost blockaded with rafts from the mouth of Dix to the lock below, and several hundred amounting to half a million of logs, were en route to market, and raftsmen and log-keepers, and crews of two tug boats had a busy week of it. We must not omit brief mention of the wonderful cave near the campsite, the mysterious depth and capacity of which we doubt having ever been fully explored. Legend has it that it was once the rendezvous of a band of robbers and counterfeiters, another story is that it was a hiding place for rebel soldiers who were cut off from their command during the war, and cared for surreptitiously by their friends until escape was realized, and still another tale is told about its having been occupied and used by several persons in which to gather up and melt silver ore obtained from a mine located somewhere in Garrard county. Jim Ingram and others of the party started into this immense hole in the cliff, bent on exploring it, but were frightened off by myriads of bats, which held the fort with a skill and success characteristic of the Russians at Port Arthur.

Nearly a Week Without Sleep.

In a recent issue of The Record, we gave a synopsis of a letter to Dr. E. H. Pearce, from his friend, Capt. Geo C Apfel, telling of the latter's experience during a dense fog which lasted almost a week. In a write up of the occurrence, we reproduce the following from the World Magazine:

Capt. George C Apfel has once more proved himself of the stuff of which heroes are made. Overwhelmed at sea by a fog that defied the keenest eyes to pierce, he stuck to the bridge of his big ship, the Friesland, bound from Liverpool to Philadelphia, for 107 hours—five days and four nights—without a wink of sleep.

Nothing could move him from his post. He kept himself up on coffee, tea and sandwiches, always on the lookout for the accident which all on board feared might happen. Grateful passengers prepared a memorial to him upon their safe arrival, as others have done on other voyages. Two years ago Capt Apfel saved his ship's company, though his ship, the Waesland, run into the Harmondies, sank in twenty-four minutes. Another time he saved the Nordland by leading the way into the hold filled with blazing wax, paraffin and oil, and inch by inch fighting back the flames until they were quenched. He tells here the story of his exciting experience upon the request of the World Magazine.

CAPT. APFEL'S STORY.

It was nothing much out of the ordinary. Any captain would have done the same as I. My place was on the bridge while the fog lasted, it mattered not whether it was a day or a week. I had my ship and my crew and my passengers to look out for, and there was nothing else to do.

Hungry? Of course not. I had plenty of coffee and tea and sandwiches. Sleepy? Well, it's a pretty long time from Monday morning to Friday night to go without a wink. If I had gone to my cabin I couldn't have slept any way with the thought that my ship was in danger.

Even then, when the sky got clear again I could only sleep for two hours. I was just as fresh as ever again. I lost the Waesland in the ocean on Holyhead Ireland. She went down in twenty-four minutes after the Harmondies ran into her in 1902.

A fog is not so bad if you keep your head and leave intoxicants alone. If you have a well disciplined ship and don't fall asleep yourself you will reap the benefit when danger comes in the fog. Then, you see, there is no wind or else the fog would blow away. With no wind you can hear the whistles of other vessels a long way off, and so you have plenty of time to do what should be done. You hear the whistle the first time—do nothing. You hear it again—now you can locate it.

I knew this would be easy if I only stayed on the bridge, and so I stayed. It was a pretty hard job, but I'm all right now.

Whooping Cough.

"In the spring of 1901 my children had whooping cough," says Mrs D W Capps, of Capps, Ala. "I used Cham berlain's Cough Remedy with the most satisfactory results. I think this is the best remedy I have ever seen for whooping cough." This remedy keeps the cough loose, lessens the severity and frequency of the coughing spell, and counteracts any tendency toward pneumonia. For sale by Frisbie's Drug Store.

To the Ladies.

It is our determination to carry over no old stock, that is, keep hats until out of style, and to do this, we offer special bargains all the time. We order new goods constantly, always having on hand a complete and full stock. Our idea is to keep the goods moving. Having met with so much encouragement from the ladies of Lancaster and Garrard county, we have decided to continue in business here, so put forth our best efforts to always have in stock the very latest and best goods in the market. Our stock is always fresh, and we can show you the very latest creations in ladies' headwear. We thank the public for the liberal patronage, and are striving to merit a continuation of same. Don't fail to visit our store, whether you wish to purchase or not. Marvel Millinery Store. Miss Ada Dickerson. tf
